SHOOTING SCRAPE.

Lee Pierce shot and severely wounded Will Davis, Sunday night about 9 o'clock, in Black Bottom. Pierce shot at Davis five times, but two taking effect, one bullet piercing the left shoulder, and another inflicting a flesh wound in the neck. Pierce made his escape. Jealousy is given as the cause of the trouble. A woman with whom it is said Pierce had been living for three years lifted him and was living with Davis.

SEPARATE WAITING ROOMS.

The State Railroad Commission has ordered separate waiting rooms in all the railroad stations in the state for colored and white passengers. It seems that in many stations there are no such accommodations.

REMEDY FOR MOBS.

The following dispatch was noted in the daily papers Tuesday. It came via New Orleans, La., and reads: "Five men were wounded during an unsuccessful attempt to lynch a Negro, at Bunkie, La., last night. No lights of any sort were burning when the posse took the Negro from the jail and members of the posse disagree as to who did the shooting, some declaring that a crowd of Negroes did it, while others claim that members of their own party are wholly to blame. The injured: H. V. Crutcher, H. S. Dougherty, O. Quinn, John Dorman, C. H. Emery, the latter of Brandon, Miss."

It is said there that this is the only remedy for mob violence. It looks as though it will be used in the state of Louisiana and possibly elsewhere.

DEEP SILENCE REIGNED.

As to the Outcome of Clarksville's Charter.

Having had both houses of the Legislature on its edges for a day and the citizens of the city the next, was the alternating fate of the charter bill of Clarksville since the electoral mandates of the people for the abolition of the saloons. The Senate, led by its Clarksville member, saw only from his point of view and the House of Representatives following in the wake of its Speaker, also from this city, felt justly proud of what had originated within its memorable walls that unless one or the other legislative body withdraw from the balancing scales, which has had this city as its fulcrum, Clarksville would degenerate into a village of infinitesimal proportion. With no charter, there would be neither Mayor nor council. The schools would likely be placed under control of the county. Public work on streets would cease, fire department and policemen given vacation, and city pass into the hands of a receiver. Thus runs the first lesson. The finale, however, ends in a compromise in which the colored councilman will in the end lose out.

Within the next few days, the Home Infirmary and Hospital, containing twelve rooms, with two wards and large operating room, will be thrown open to the public. Under many inconveniences and vexations, the colored physicians saw the necessity for such an institution and a beautiful location with all the sanitary requirements is the outcome.

Aid and assistance in the shape of cash and supplies have been given by the druggists, merchants and citizens, and when the institution is completed, it will compare favorably with any in the state. Dr. R. T. Burt has been selected as physician-in-charge, with Drs. C. A. Kelly, L. T. Williams, M. E. Coleman and E. D. Burns, of Guthrie, Ky., as assistants. On special occasions Drs. Hall and Williams, of Chicago, and Boyd and Wilson, of Nashville, will operate as will Dr. C. V. Roman, the specialist of Nashville. The Ferro Concrete Company of Cincinnati, Ohio, has completed one of the most substantial buildings in the city for the American Snuff Co. All the concrete work was done by colored workmen and the artistic finishing was in charge of Messrs. Chas. Porter, Albert Richardson, Ernest Ratcliffe, of Cincinnati, and Wiley Gupton, of this city.

Dr. Geo. Hall, one of the leading surgeons of Chicago, Ill., spent a few hours last week in the city with friends. He was on his way to Birmingham, Ala.

Alexander, Mr. E. Alexander, Mr. Chatman.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY WHIST CLUB.

One of the most charming hospitalities of the season was the entertainment, Thursday, evening, April 11, given by the young men of the Twentieth Century Whist Club at the home of Mrs. R. Clinton Eason, on Eighth avenue, North. Whist and dancing were the features of the evening. The following guests enjoyed the occasion: Messdames Thos. A. Ewing, Herbert Cole, Eugene Clayton, Misses Susie Lee, Dobson, Lottie Rene Anderson, Pearl Warner, Anne Cheek, L. Beatrice Stringer, Gertrude Mayberry, Carrie Richardson, Hattie. E. Mullen, Willie Andrews, Fronie D. Mayberry, John D. Blackwell, Bettie Warren, Willa Mai Turner, Messrs. Geo. Harrison, J. Ewing Dobson, T. A. Ewing, W. H. Summers, Allen L. Whittaker, Guy Hampton, Clyde Lay, J. Wymon Brady, J. M. Foster, Guy Boadenhammer, Chas. Alexander, J. Wesley Maney, J. J. Lay, Jas. W. Moore, R. #### BACK TO ATLANTA JAIL.

James Greason and John Stevens, white, who pleaded guilty to attempting to rob the Murfreesboro post office last fall and received a two-year sentence, will be transferred from the Davidson County jail to the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. The prisoners will be taken to Atlanta to-day by Deputy Marshals James Duggan and John Montgomery.

ROCKEFELLER OPENS HIS PURSE.

A dispatch from Boston, Mass., on April 16, says:

"Announcement was made to-day that the American Baptist Missionary Union has been assured by John D. Rockefeller that this year he stands ready to contribute $200,000 to the needs of the union. The first installment of $125,000 is for the purpose of general missionary work, while $75,000 is to be used for building."

The colored Baptists hope that some of the money will come to Southern fields to assist the work among them.

HON. JOHN BROOK HENDERSON,

Author of the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution, Entitling the Colored Race to Citizenship

Hon. J. B. Henderson, who is one of the most true and tried friends the colored race has to-day, is living quietly in his splendid mansion on 10th street and Florida avenue. The Senator is a most genial and pleasant person to talk to. He likes to converse on the past history of the country in which he took such an active part. The Bee reporter had to call several times before he would give him an audience and data connected with his past life, owing to his modesty. He was admitted to the Missouri bar in 1848 and has practiced ever since he was elected to the Missouri Legislature in 1848 and 1856. He was also a member of the Missouri Convention to determine the question of secession in 1861-1863. He was U. S. Senator from Missouri January, 1862, to March 4, 1869.

He was also special United States Attorney for prosecution of the whiskey ring at St. Louis in 1875, president of the Republican National Convention at Chicago, in 1884, and a member of the Pan American Congress in 1889-90, elected by Congress 1892. Author of the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution, abolishing slavery. He is a staunch friend of the colored race, as well as a true and patriotic citizen. He is easily approached, in spite of all the honors that have been bestowed upon him, and no one can find a more pleasant person to converse with than the illustrious statesman of Missouri, the Hon. J. B. Henderson.—Washington Bee.

LATE FROSTS THIS YEAR.

The farmers have suffered quite a deal, so has the truck gardeners this spring on account of the late frost.

The local Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture has issued its regular weekly weather bulletin which gives a general summary of weather conditions in the State of Tennessee for the week ending April 15. The summary follows:

"Unseasonably cold weather prevailed during the entire week. The average temperature for the seven days was 14 degrees below the normal. Frosts occurred on the 9th, 10th, 11th, 14th and 15th, with minimum temperature below freezing, the lowest temperature reported being 20 degrees on the 11th, at Erasmus and Rugby. Several stations reported minimum temperatures as low as 26 degrees on the 14th. The rainfall was much below the normal, and consisted of light showers on the 8th and 11th, and traces of snow on the 12th and 13th. The rather windy weather that prevailed on several days no doubt mitigated to some extent the effect of the low temperature."

FILED FOR PROBATE.

APPOINTS ELECTION COMMISSION.

One of the last acts of Gov. Patterson before the legislature adjourned was to appoint Nathan G. Robertson, of Wilson County; Edward R. Richardson, of Davidson County, and F. A. Raht, of Coffee County, as the State Election Commissioners. Contrary to the general impression, the statute does not require that one member of the Commission be appointed from each of the grand divisions of the State. Mr. Raht is the republican member of the Commission and is said to have been an active participant in the contests of that party for several years. He is a follower of Congressman Brownlow, and three years ago was a delegate to the National Republican Convention.
